1	3/22/19	QUESTIONS: Reference: Subcontractors &amp; Suppliers listing. Article 7 in bid form indicates that the contractor shall submit a list of proposed suppliers and subcontractors. Do all selected / listed subcontractors have to have contractor' specialty license in Guam at time of submitting the bid? There is a possibility we utilize subcontractors outside Guam and they are in the process of obtaining the required licenses. Due to limited time given for step 2, is it acceptable to allow those Selected Subcontractors who do not have Guam license to obtain correct licenses after bid submittals within the proposal acceptance period of 120 days? Please be advised that there may be a significant price advantage to the owner if this waiver is granted for this project	Article 7.01, E, is intended for the Prime Contractor's license only. It is the Prime Contractor's responsibility to obtain its selected subcontractors' licenses compliant with Guam laws and as required by the Project Specifications prior to those subcontractor's starting work. It should be noted that all other requirements under Article 7 are still required.
